

The Families @ Work Legal Clinic invites you to a free training for attorneys about

Current Trends and Cutting Edge Issues in Family Responsibilities Discrimination Law

The Families @ Work Legal Clinic, co-sponsored by A Better Balance and Outten & Golden LLP, offers free consultations to low-income workers facing problems on the job related to their family responsibilities. Join us to learn about our clinic and how you can successfully represent pregnant women, working parents and caregivers in their workplace disputes.

Our panel will cover how federal, state and local laws can be used to protect family caregivers and how temporary disability and unemployment insurance impact pregnant women and new mothers. Case studies will highlight strategies for complex cases and tie together overlapping regulatory regimes.
