Overview of Paid Sick Time Laws in the United States

Updated on October 26, 2018

Please note that these paid sick time materials do not represent an exhaustive overview of the state, county, and city paid sick time laws described, and it does not constitute legal advice. It is possible that additional provisions not described in these materials may apply to a worker’s specific circumstances or category of employment.

Connecticut

- Who is covered?
  - Hourly workers in certain “service” occupations in Connecticut are covered, if they work for a business with 50 or more workers. For the full list of which professions are covered “service” occupations, go to www.ctdol.state.ct.us/wgwkstnd/SickLeaveLaw.htm and look at the definition of “service worker” (Sec. 31-57r(7)). Certain manufacturers and non-profit organizations are exempted, as are temporary and day laborers.

- Can sick time be used to care for loved ones?
  - Yes: children and spouses

- How is “child” defined?
  - Biological, foster, or adopted children, stepchildren, legal wards, or the child of a worker standing in loco parentis to the child. The child must be under 18 or incapable of self-care because of a mental/physical disability.

- Can sick time be used for specific “safe time” purposes (related to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking)?
  - Yes, but only when the worker is the victim

- Can sick time be used under the law to bond with a new child and/or deal with a family member’s death?
  - No. Other laws, such as the Family and Medical Leave Act or a state equivalent, could provide eligible workers with unpaid leave for these purposes.

- Can sick time be used when a worker’s place of work or child’s school/place of care is closed by public health officials for a public health emergency?
  - No.

- Rate at which workers earn paid sick time?
  - 1 hour for every 40 hours worked

- Do workers have different sick time-related rights based on the size of their employer?
  - Yes, workers who work for employers with fewer than 50 employees are exempt.

- Amount of paid sick time that can be earned under the law per year?
  - Up to 40 hours of paid sick time a year
When do workers begin to earn paid sick time? | At the commencement of employment, but workers aren’t entitled to use paid sick time until the 680th hour of employment.
---|---
Does unused sick time carry forward to the subsequent year? | Workers are entitled to carry forward up to 40 hours of unused paid sick time, but employers are not required to allow use of more than 40 hours of paid sick time a year.
Private Right of Action to go to Court? | No
Are there waivers/ exemptions for workers covered by a valid Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA)? | No specific language regarding waivers or exemptions for workers covered by a CBA
